DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On October 10, 2018, Georgie Fletcher filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she developed Guillain-Barre Syndrome (“GBS”) as a result of a November 3, 2015 influenza (“flu”) vaccine. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On March 2, 2020, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding Petitioner entitled to compensation for GBS. On July 10, 2020, Respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating Petitioner should be awarded $343,209.26 ($137,500.00 for pain and suffering and $205,709.26 for past and future lost wages) and funds to satisfy the New York City Department of Social Services lien in the amount of $9,042.20. Proffer at 1-2. In the Proffer, Respondent represented that Petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. Based on the record as a whole, I find that Petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, I award Petitioner the following compensation:

- Funds to satisfy the New York City Department of Social Services lien in the amount of $9,042.20, which represents full satisfaction of any right of subrogation, assignment, claim, lien, or cause of action the New York City Department of Social Services may have against any individual as a result of any Medicaid payments that the New York City Department of Social Services has made to or on behalf of Petitioner from the date of her eligibility for benefits through the date of judgment in this case as a result of her vaccine-related injury suffered on or about November 3, 2015, under Title XIX of the Social Security Act. Reimbursement of the New York City Department of Social Services lien shall be made through a lump sum payment of $9,042.20, representing compensation for satisfaction of the New York City Department of Social Services, payable jointly to Petitioner and

- A lump sum payment of $343,209.26 ($137,500.00 for pain and suffering and $205,709.26 for past and future lost wages) in the form of a check payable to Petitioner.

This represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

B. Pain and Suffering and Out-of-Pocket Expenses

Based upon the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $343,209.26 ($137,500.00 for pain and suffering and $205,709.26 for past and future lost wages).

This represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).¹ Petitioner agrees. Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case.

¹ Should petitioner die prior to entry of judgment, the parties reserve the right to move the Court for appropriate relief. In particular, respondent would oppose any award for future medical expenses, future lost earnings, and future pain and suffering.
